

Congratulations to our winners!

This program's objectives include helping emerging leaders continue to build their knowledge and skill sets, and to connect them with each other and the present generation of Kansas City leaders.

The Kansas City Business Journal sought nominations of people who make a difference and are destined to leave their mark on the business community. A panel of judges selected 25 NextGen Leaders based on their accomplishments, talents and contributions to the community.

Nathan Anderson
Lee & Assoc. Kansas City LLC

Jim Brown
MBB/hippo Advertising

Ramin Cherifat
McCownGordon Construction

Steve Fleischaker
Bank of Blue Valley

Elizabeth Glynn
Travois

Courtney Goddard
Park University

Sheri Gormley
UMKC Henry W. Bloch School of Management

Jennifer Haile
Resources Global Professionals

Hunter Harris
LANE4 Property Group Inc.

Jeremy Hegle
U.S.SourceLink/KCSourceLink

Jennifer Ingraham
Kansas City Repertory Theatre

Korb Maxwell
Polsinelli PC

Katherine McDonald
KCP&L/Great Plains Energy

William "Matt" McInnes
McInnes Group Inc.

Blake Miller
Think Big Partners

John Minnis
Bank Midwest

William Moore
Crestwood Midstream Partners LP and Crestwood Equity Partners LP

Shazzie Naseem
Berkowitz Oliver Williams Shaw and Eisenbrandt LLP

Troy Nash
Zimmer Real Estate Services

Kerri Reisdorff
Ogletree, Deakins, Nash, Smoak & Stewart PC

Sarah Richardson
Hospital Corporation of America (HCA)

Brad Sandt
k12itc

Brad Satterwhite
KEM STUDIO

Brian Stewart
ARC Physical Therapy+

Tom Van Buren
Ferrell North America

PRESENTED BY:

SPONSORED BY:

